Big Big World

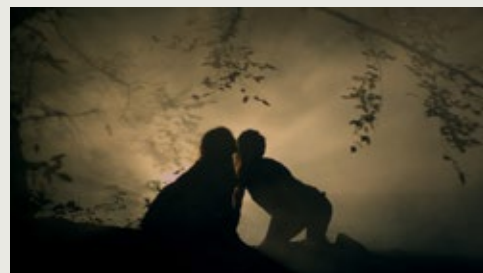

SYNOPSIS

Ali and Zuhul are two teenagers who grew up in an orphanage with a bond as strong as between brother and sister. When Ali moves out on account of his age, Zuhul is put into the dubious care of a foster family and is no longer allowed to see him. In a desperate attempt to save Zuhul from a scheduled arranged marriage, Ali commits a terrible crime, and they find themselves on the run, away from civilization and into the woods. There, in a secluded space deep in the forest, they try to start a new life in a mystical natural environment full of wonders, strange residents and concrete threats. One day, however, Ali finds Zuhul drenched in blood and doesn't have any choice but to take her back to the city again.

DIRECTOR

Born in Istanbul, Reha Erdem graduated from Cinema Department of Paris 8 University. He also obtained an M.A. in Plastic Arts at the same university and directed his first feature film, OH, MOON!, in 1989. He has since won multiple awards with titles such as TIMES AND WINDS (2006), MY ONLY SUNSHINE (2009) and KOSMOS (2010). His two most recent feature films prior to Big Big World were both released in 2013 to wide acclaim: JIN (Berlinale, Generation) and SINGING WOMEN (2013, Toronto, Special Presentation).
